"I am delighted that I had the opportunity to participate in LINC. It has really given me a new insight and energy to continue to provide an inclusive culture in my setting. The blended-learning process is flexible and allowed me to learn when and where it suited me, which, as a practitioner and busy parent, was essential. The lessons are well planned and organised, and the content very relevant and up-to-date. Tutors and staff are extremely supportive and informative. I will carry all that I have learned through both my professional and personal life."
